

Painted Trillium Bio

Painted Trillium is a three member Celtic band. They perform Traditional Celtic and folk music that ranges from fast paced reels and songs to airs and slow ballads. Painted Trillium has performed around the Mid-Atlantic as well as in the Midwest. They have been a regular part of the Maryland Renaissance Festival and have performed at venues such as: Symphony Woods, Columbia

Festival of the Arts, The French Embassy, Columbia Lakefront Festival, Twilight Tuesdays in Silver Spring, New Deal Café, and World Café Live at the Queen. They were also part of a feature on CNN. In 2010 Painted Trillium recorded with the metal band, Sound of Thunder, on their album Metal Renaissance. You can hear them on the album's opening track Wee Beastie Beastie composed by band member Rob Meyer. Currently Painted Trillium is working on their debut album that will be released in 2016.